Swim Meet Saturday For Tri-County Title

BY PEGGY NEWTON

Carmel Swim Club, last year's unofficial tri-county champions, are hosting the annual tri-county championship meet which opened with preliminary trials yesterday.

Diving competition will be held on Friday--starting time 12:15 p. m. at the Carmel High School pool. Swimming finals hold the spotlight on Saturday, with seven teams competing for the championship.

Gilroy enters the meet as a slight favorite, with the undefeated Monterey Marins and the Santa Cruz teams as additional strong threats. Carmel could be an upset victor but is not fielding as strong a team as last season. Other competing teams are Salinas, Watsonville, and Cabrillo.

Carmel Coach Bob Walthour is meet director. From both Carmel and the Valley come other local officials: Doyle Clayton, Sue Bartlett, Pam Peterson, Joy Fehring, Peggy Newton, Commander and Mrs. Ariel Lane, Harry Coss, Col. Bert Nishimura, Jason Harbert, Richard Whitesides, Don Squire, and John De Arman. Besides the young people pictured at left, others expected to turn in outstanding performances are Teresa De Arman, Diane Whitesides, and Marilyn Lane.

Three Valley Cases On Zoning Agenda

Two variances and one use permit will be sought on Valley property when the Board of Zoning Adjustment meets August 13. All are scheduled between 11:00 and 11:30 a. m.

Lloyd Todd, who holds a .6 acre parcel on Alison Rd., a legal building site because of its presence in the original subdivision map prior to zoning, has applied for a variance to retain the lot's eligibility for building when a 4' x 6' well lot is sold from it.

Mrs. S. T. B. Johnson of Salsipuedes Rd. in Robles del Rio wishes to join a garage to a house and convert the garage to a bedroom; a variance is required to permit living quarters at the present location of the

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Gentlemen:

I am writing to your paper since I do not know whether there is a Chamber of Commerce in Carmel Valley...

Can you tell me whether or not there is any swimming pool in Carmel Valley that is open to the public? We have been coming to the Valley for a number of summers now and have taken our small children to the small lagoon behind the Mission. However, last year there was so much scum on the water that it was impossible for the children to go in the water. Our children love the water and it would be wonderful if we could find a swimming pool that would be available to the public.

I would appreciate hearing from you soon, since we plan to come down in about two weeks.

Very truly yours,
Helen R. Straka
Palo Alto

(There are about a dozen motels and larger resorts in Carmel Valley. Nearly all of these have swimming pools for the use of guests who are staying there or, if they have no pool, can generally arrange nearby pool privileges. Several resorts have yearly membership plans whereby local residents may use the swimming facilities.

There is now, according to Chamber of Commerce executive secretary Lory Swiess, only one pool in the Valley where one-day visitors may swim for a fee -- that is Los Laureles Lodge. Children are welcome there if they "swim well" and are accompanied by an adult. For further information, write the Chamber of Commerce, Carmel Valley, or ask at the C of C information center located in the Thunderbird Shop next to the CV post office.)

BITS & PIECES by ye editor

THE PROBLEM OF PLAY REVIEW

Mr. Cole Weston, producer of "Carnival", currently playing at the Old Monterey Opera House (formerly Wharf Theatre) was extremely unhappy with our reviewer's unenthusiastic opinion of his play.

"You did yourself no good by cutting US down," said Mr. Weston over the telephone to the Outlook. "We have canceled the large advertisement we had been running in your paper. I just mention this in passing, because I realize one cannot BUY a favorable review--and everyone just laughed at you anyway, because your reviewer had such poor judgement. The whole cast feels that yours is just an inferior little countrified paper, not worth commenting upon."

Mr. Weston also stated that a close friend of his who operates another business in Monterey had also canceled his ad in the Outlook because of the review.

"Your reviewer is stupid, provincial, and pompous," said Mr. W., warming to his subject. "All my players work for nothing. They do it for one reason--because they love the theatre--and they should get a little credit for what they are doing."

We assured Mr. Weston that we understood very well the problems of trying to operate a project which is at once a small enterprise and a community service, which strives for professional results with a semi-amateur if amazing loyal and hard-working staff, and which on top of it all has to be economically self-supporting while serving a very limited area.

As for our reviewer of this particular show--we think he needs no defense! Anyone who knows Bob Stuart knows that he is intelligent, cosmopolitan, and unassuming. Furthermore, he is entitled to his opinion.

But we will admit that play reviewing on the Monterey Peninsula is a problem. Those interested in local theatre have long acknowledged it as such. For a long time it was traditional, we gather, to praise all local productions and pat each player on the head. That tradition was broken last year, amid much journalistic furor, and it has become increasingly common to express honest opinion even when unfavorable to hardworking, earnest thespians who, we admit, deserve encouragement at least.

In formulating our policy we decided (1) our first responsibility is to our readers, who will be buying tickets at professional prices and deserve a realistic appraisal from the local press. (2) Our space is too small to give the traditional mention and bit of praise to each and every player including the maid and the messenger boy and the walk-on butler who didn't do it. We think our readers just want a general idea of whether we found the evening worthwhile, to what extent, and why.

The interesting part is that theatre people, in droves, have told us they admire our policy, that honest, constructive criticism will force improvement in the quality of local productions. Yet without exception even those actors we admire the most become positively pettish if we become even slightly lukewarm in our printed reactions! This is just something we had to learn to live with!

When this paper first grew large enough, about a year ago, to find room for reviews, we attempted to find one of professional calibre. We tried two who were very knowledgeable in the field, and clever writers too, but quickly decided that they were TOO "professional" for this area; their standards were imported from Broadway and they seemed, well, more interested in exhibiting their erudition and wit than in letting the ordinary reader know whether they thought he might enjoy a particular play. Since these dual, sad experiences we have had the habit of allowing any one of our contributors or staff members to review a play who happened to be free on opening night and desirous of tackling the task. We think that any of these, while not professional reviewers, are capable of forming intelligent if not expert opinions and that these are what the casual playgoer who reads this paper is really seeking.

So, we're sorry, Mr. Weston, but we'll stick to our guns. If you wish to withhold reviewing tickets from us in your future productions, we think you'll be doing yourself no good. Our next reviewer might think your next play was a corker!

WHO COULD BELIEVE JOANNE A GRANDMA?

A press release from the Public Information Office of the U. S. Army Tripler General Hospital was responsible for informing Mrs. Joanne Sears of Carmel Valley of the name of her new grandchild.

The press release, announcing the birth of a son (their third child) to USN Hospital Corpsman First Class Peter G. Sears and Mrs. Sears arrived at the Outlook late last week. Ye editor immediately called Mrs. Sears to congratulate her.

"I am astonished that you should hear about it," said the well-known Carmel Valley coutouriere, "but since you know so much perhaps you can tell me the name of the baby. When my son telephoned from Honolulu, he was so excited he forgot to tell me the child's name."

Scott Gerald Sears is the name of the new arrival, who weighed in at seven pounds 15 1/2 ounces on July 18, 1963. His maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Bremis of Watsonville. Congratulations to all!

Youth Panel Chosen For August 19 Forum

Young people of Carmel Valley will present their own forum to the community at large on Monday, August 19, at 8:00 p. m. in the multipurpose room at Tularcitos School. (Both date and place are different from those announced last week. Because of the size of the crowd at the first forum, Jim Brock's committee of six adults who sponsor the forums decided to make the change.)

The young people have chosen the following among them to participate in the forum: Juanita Flammini, Carolyn Wolter, Susan Saulsbury, Dick Crispo, Bob Todd, Jr., and Peter Garneau.

As an unexpected aftermath of the Youth Forum last week (where various law enforcement and probation officers spoke), a member of the audience, Mrs. Robert Jones of Robles del Rio, came forward and offered her home for an informal Saturday night party for the young people. Both Mr. and Mrs. Jones are teachers, according to the spokesman for the youth group who reported the event.

"It was just marvelous," she said. "We had a meeting ahead of time, the girls planned the supper, and the boys chipped in to buy the meat. It was a barbecue, and was supposed to last from 6:00 to 9:30. But after supper, Rick Jones (not related to the host family) started to play the piano, and Jim Berta and Buddy Powell got out their guitars. We all sang, and time just seemed to fly, and the Joneses let us stay until 11:30." Over thirty young people attended the party.

The young person speaking said she hoped that a series of such well-planned and well-executed evenings might lead to a reopening of the regular Youth Center Saturday night parties, which were discontinued for the summer recently when adults in charge complained of lack of co-operation and responsibility on the part of the youthful members.

Two members of the group which will speak on Monday, August 19, said they "hoped to accomplish more" with their meeting than was accomplished at the forum conducted by the law enforcement officials. Neither spokesman was critical of the motives of those who planned their evening. Their criticism appeared to be mostly that "nothing was accomplished or even made clear."

"Nearly everybody who spoke kept pointing out that the problem in Carmel Valley is not nearly so bad as in Salinas or Monterey or somewhere else, and we certainly agree, but that isn't the point. They did not talk about what could be done to solve the problems we DO have. Just because they are worse somewhere else does not help solve OUR problems."

(Ed. Note: Last week we found ourselves so befuddled by the forum which was held at the Community Center that we reported it only briefly and promised editorial comment this week. We hesitated to criticize a meeting which we were convinced had been organized with the best of intentions but which we felt confused many and accomplished little except to show that great community interest does exist--no doubt a fine thing to demonstrate! We think the criticism of the young people, above, sums up our own feeling about that first forum quite well and that further editorial comment would be superfluous at this time. --B. B.)

Square Dancers Change Meeting Night For Party

The square dance group which usually meets on Monday nights at Tularcitos multipurpose room was able conveniently to relinquish the meeting place to the youth forum scheduled for August 19.

Since the beginners' square dance group is "graduating" that week, a party has been planned for the preceding Saturday, August 17, at 8:30 p. m. Ken Steen of Santa Clara will be guest caller. Spectators are always welcome at these colorful and lively gatherings at the school.

JACK ZENTINO TAKES JOB AS FORESTER

Nineteen year old Jack Zentino is beaming with pride and pleasure in his new job at Arroyo Seco with the U. S. Forestry Service. He will be away from home most of the summer and very much hopes that he will be able to procure a year-round job and make a career of forestry. The outdoor work is very much to his liking, he says.

MARJORY LLOYD, OUTLOOK'S CARMEL EDITOR, STILL AWAITING GRANDCHILD

Two weeks ago Marjory Lloyd, contributing editor to the Carmel Valley Outlook, left gaily for San Francisco to assist in the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank "Skipper" Lloyd, during those first busy days following the birth of an expected grandchild. At last, and quite recent, reports all were in fine spirits--but still waiting.

Notes from Hacienda Carmel

BY MARJORIE WEBER

On August 1 Hacienda Carmel was one year old, the first 15 residents having moved in and spent their first night there exactly a year earlier.

This called for a birthday celebration, and all of the original 15, plus some 125 additional residents, joined in an afternoon birthday party at Casa Central on this first anniversary of the Hacienda Carmel Community Association.

Everyone arriving was charmed to see the main lounge and the dining room gay with many large and very beautiful flower arrangements, which were sent by various Carmel and Carmel Valley business concerns to mark the occasion.

Throughout the afternoon we were treated to music by the Neil Armstrong Combo from the Breakers. Mr. Armstrong was at the organ; Jaye Valenzuela played played the mandolin and occasionally sang as well, while Paul Callaghan, son of a popular member of the Hacienda staff, was responsible for the drums. Most of the selections were dance tunes, which provided what was obviously a welcome opportunity for a considerable number of those present (and by no means only the youngest) to add to the festivity by dancing, not only waltzes and two-steps, but also some of the currently popular dances.

Members of the staff circulated among us with champagne and canapes, and several also joined in the dancing. Later in the afternoon Mrs. Margaret Funk, also a staff member, who has a pleasing soprano voice, showed us that she can sing as well as dance, and gave us the pleasure of several songs, with accompaniment by the Combo.

No birthday party is complete without a birthday cake, so of course there was a beautifully decorated one, created by our chef, Wesley Jimerson, who was responsible also for the intriguing canapes.

As usual, Mr. Loren Johnson, who is managing director, and his wife, who is really almost co-managing director, along with Ed Petherick, our tireless activities chairman, contributed unobtrusively but importantly to this highly successful birthday party. It turned out to be a truly happy family party for the entire Hacienda Carmel community, and it was with a tinge of regret that the strains of, "Good Night, Ladies," told us that our first birthday party had come to its end.

MEELANDS HOME

After 4 months in Vietnam, Dr. Tor Meeland met Mrs. Meeland and young daughter Kelda in Hawaii where they had flown for a reunion and a brief but delightful vacation before their return together to their Carmel Valley on Horizon Way. Emily and Kelda are now sporting extremely modish muu-muus. Tor returned with several reels of interesting movies of Vietnam and Thailand. Tor was one of several scientists recently assigned to Vietnam through the Fort Ord office of Stanford Research Institute, and his motion pictures are proving of great interest to several other of SRI's researchers residing on the Monterey Peninsula who are shortly scheduled to make the same trip.

Tania Williams Improves

Accidents To Young People Distress Family And Friends

The number of accidents suffered by some of the Valley's outstanding young people this summer has caused concern and grief in a number of homes. But recent good news from one of the homes most seriously stricken has brought much pleasure to the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Williams of Los Ranchitos. Suddenly, after many weeks of virtually no encouragement regarding the recovery of their daughter Tania, "there are wonderful signs of improvement," the overjoyed mother reports.

Tania, a junior-high student, fell early last May and evidently suffered a skull fracture although the extent of the injury was apparently not realized at the time.

After symptoms became evident, Mrs. Williams says, "Tania spent weeks as if in a vacuum. The doctors would give us no hope. Now they meet us with grins and news of her latest healthy signs."

Tania is walking, reading, feeding herself, even putting on lipstick again!

"So much re-learning will be necessary that complete recovery may take a long time," says Mrs. Williams, "but the doctors are quite reassuring that there has been no permanent damage."

Mrs. Williams would like to make public the family's gratitude to the staff of the Monterey Hospital. "Nurses and doctors could not have been more wonderful to us," she says. In addition, the family wishes to thank the many friends of their daughter who have sent her gifts. "Often the nurses open them for her and I do not even know who sent all the things. So this is the only way I can think of to say thank you!"

MUSCUTT

Bill Muscutt, Jr., currently CV's outstanding 4-H member and a candidate for the regional Diamond Star award, had a misunderstanding with a mechanized posthole digger last week and suffered a badly broken arm which will cramp the sturdy young man's style only for the remainder of the summer--no permanent damage, a member of the family reported. Since Mrs. Muscutt is a nurse, reports are that she and the rest of the family are "taking it in their stride."

MATHERSON

More serious is the news about 3-year old Joanne Matherson, daughter of Lcdr. and Mrs. Richard Matherson of W. Carmel Valley Rd., whose face was badly mangled by a Dalmation dog while the owner, well-known horse trainer Beauford Clark, was demonstrating a mount for the Mathersons at their request.

Mrs. Clark stated that it was felt necessary to acquire a watchdog about a year ago because they had suffered so many thefts of hay and grain from their stables in the past. Both Mr. and Mrs. Clark felt so very unhappy about the incident that they "couldn't bear even to talk about it," Mrs. Clark stated.

Mrs. Matherson said that her little daughter "is feeling fine, in good spirits. She is too young to realize what a facial injury may mean." The mother said that another operation might yet be necessary as the plastic surgeon stated that he had been unable to locate one nerve during 1 1/2 hours of plastic surgery last Saturday afternoon, when she was rushed to Community Hospital by the Carmel Valley Volunteer Ambulance crew.

MIYAMOTO

Having received visits from most of his Babe Ruth teammates while in the hospital, Melvin Miyamoto was reported in "his usual happy spirits" when brought home from the hospital by his family early this week. He stopped off to see his good friend Randy Sinclair on the way. Friends said that the popular and plucky youngster had received the news of the loss of one eye "with the strength and courage typical of the Miyamoto family." Because this particular family has done so much for the youth not only of Carmel Valley but of the whole Monterey Peninsula, the chief concern of their many friends and neighbors was, "if only we could do something for them for a change!"

Citizens' Groups United In Opposing Gas Station

Citizens' associations both in Carmel Valley and Carmel are rallying behind the newly formed Carmel Knolls Property Owners Association in its fight to prevent re-zoning of a one-acre site at the entrance to the subdivision in order to permit construction of a gas station there.

Monterey Peninsula Associates, developers of Carmel Knolls, will come before the County Planning Commission August 27 to petition for the rezoning. John Sigourney, president of the CV Property Owners Association has been querying his board members individually by phone, since the group is not scheduled to meet until August 29.

"So far," he reported, "they are all strongly opposed to any gas station at that location. For that matter, they do not wish any further expansion of the commercial area at the Valley entrance.

"The County Planning Commission," Sigourney continued, "has here a clear opportunity to uphold the Carmel Valley Master Plan which it originally endorsed".

CARMEL CITIZENS COMMITTEE, TOO!

The Carmel Citizens Committee will send the following message to the planning commission hearing: "Resolved, that we, the Board of Directors of the Carmel Citizens Committee, in conformity with the stated objectives and the policies of the organization, express to the Monterey County Planning Commission our opposition to any proposed gas station or other commercial activity on the north side of the Carmel Valley Road in or near Carmel Knolls, South Carmel Hills, or Rancho Rio Vista."

Adm. C. Willis Fisher, president of the group, stated his belief that "there is enough land already zoned commercial at the mouth of the Valley to take care of the needs of the area for 20 years to come."

Road Consultant Fund Drive Goes Well

Response has been quite satisfactory so far to the joint appeal (of the Carmel Valley Property Owners Association and the Mid-Carmel Valley Property Owners Association) for contributions to help pay costs of an independent planner for a scenic 4-lane Carmel Valley Rd. John Sigourney, president of CVPOA, reported last week that more than half of the needed $1000 had been received "and more letters are coming in every day." Also contained in the letters, he said, were a gratifying number of yearly dues payments ($2) for the CVPOA and/or the M-CVPOA (some residents in the lower half of the Valley elect to join both organizations.)

Membership in either group is not necessary to contribute to planning costs. The Monterey County Board of Supervisors has already pledged $1000 with the understanding that residents of the Valley would contribute a matching amount.

Contributions and/or membership fees for either or both groups can be sent to Box 157, Carmel Valley, Calif.

Explorer Scout Post in Carmel Valley

Hiking, exploring, canoeing, and camping will be included in the program of Carmel Valley's new Explorer Scout Post #207 for boys from 14 to 18 years of age. It is not necessary to have been a scout in younger years in order to join this post.

Members so far are Pat Waters, Ken Olsen, Richard Hermanson, Tim Hall, Steve Hall, Terry Wershing, and Steve Hermanson.

Carmel Valley Kiwanis Club sponsors the post, which met for the first time in July, and will hold its second meeting next Wednesday, August 7. A 3-to-4 day pack trip has already been planned for late this month in the Santa Lucia Mountains out of Big Sur. Boys wishing to join the group can get in touch with any of the members or the adult adviser, T.G. ("Gerry") Cullen.

An Eagle Scout and an experienced leader, Cullen served for 8 years as a scoutmaster and for 6 years as a post adviser in Orinda before moving to Carmel Valley 2 years ago. He will have no dearth of help in operating the new group. Tom Waters is Post Committee Chairman; Richard Hall, Conrad Olsen, and Jack Hermanson are members of the Committee. Attorney Mark Starr serves as representative from Kiwanis.

At the Post's first meeting, which was held at the Cullen home in La Rancheria, two crews were formed. Tim Hall was elected senior crew leader, and Pat Waters secretary-treasurer.

← STED WOOD

LAMBASTES LITTERBUGS

"The statisticians tell us that Carmel Valley Road must have more lanes to carry more cars to bring more people who will be able to throw more rubbish along a roadway which--in all details of its planning and construction through the heavenly pastures--is the anxious concern of many Valley residents...

How pleasant it would be if motorists who are blind to the beauty of our area and who insist on throwing trash from their cars would never discover our Valley road!"

So mused J. Stedman Wood, retired advertising artist-executive of note, and one of CV's especially beloved citizens.

Having penned the words, he drew the picture at the left and contributed it to the Valley's weekly paper. (Thank you, Sted!)

Every now and then "Sted" Wood gets a little tired of being retired, and "does a little job" locally, sometimes professional as well as voluntary. One of his latest projects was the design of the handsome entrance sign and "dry" landscaping now being installed at Rancho Tierra Grande. He also designed the subdivision's brochures for developer Paul Porter, AND the ad for "The Shutters" restaurant on page 2 of this week's Outlook. In addition, he's designed and built some furniture for friends and rather enjoys the versatility of recent assignments.

Carmel Womens Club To Open Season

On August 12 at 12:30, the Carmel Women's Club will hold a "kick-off" luncheon in preparation for their annual rummage sale which will be held on September 12. Salads and desserts will be provided by members who have been requested to bring their own choice. Their friends will be welcome, and cards will follow the luncheon.

The Ways & Means Committee which is sponsoring the rummage sale, urges each member to search her storage space and bring along to this luncheon any items she may care to offer for sale, or advise the president, Miss Ianthe Densmore, of any items such as furniture or other heavy pieces which may need transportation.

Junior Red Cross At Children's House

Four young ladies told with glowing faces early this week how much their summer has been enriched by helping at Children's House, Carmel Valley. Part of their pleasant duties have been swimming twice a week with the youngsters of Children's House in the Robles Del Rio pool of Mrs. Winthrop Whitney, who has offered her home year after year for this purpose.

Sonja Little, Anne Hirschi, and Kathy and Roberta Goulding are junior Red Cross volunteers--the liaison with Children's House was arranged by the Carmel Chapter of ARC. Tavia Konitz of Carmel Valley, another teenager, is a personal friend of Children's House Director Ruth Ford, and also does volunteer work with the children.

Here are some of the things the young ladies have to say about their work with retarded and disturbed children:

"You can see them improve from week to week--that's what makes it so wonderful!"

"It isn't just that their coordination, speed, and strength grow greater--you can see them grow happier. Why, they even speak more clearly!"

"You get very fond of the children, too. The main thing I can say about it is, it really has been fun!"

GEORGE T. C. SMITH PHOTOS

White Oaks To Stage 'Little Mary Sunshine'

"Little Mary Sunshine", White Oaks Summer Theatre's last major production of the season, will have its first local performance Thursday evening, Aug. 15. It opened Off-Broadway virtually unheralded on November 18, 1959. Next morning, however, critics and audience alike were ecstatic. Brooks Atkinson called it "a gem of derisive fooling", and Walter Kerr said, "I have almost never seen anything so easy and foolish and delightful."

What is "Little Mary Sunshine?" Rick Besoyan, who wrote the book and lyrics and also composed the music, pokes gentle fun at the old shows. As in the days of Victor Herbert, Rudolf Friml and Sigmund Romberg, the heroine is infinitely pure and wears an eternal smile; the hero is a rugged outdoorsman. To these add a character juvenile, a soubrette, assorted comedians, a few Indians, and, of course, a chorus, and you have a recreation of the operetta form of musical theatre. If the music and lyrics sound vaguely reminiscent, they should, for they call upon "Rosemarie", "The Desert Song" and even Cohan's "45 Minutes from Broadway" which was presented by White Oaks last season.

"Little Mary Sunshine" is a bright, gay and hilariously funny show. It will play at the rustic barn theatre in Carmel Valley on Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings through September 8. Curtain time is 8:30, and audiences are invited to enjoy a picnic supper preceding the show in the colorful outdoor lobby.

Via MPVS, $1500 For Carmel Youth Center

Mrs. C.E. Wagenman, liaison officer of Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services, presented Miss Nancy Baxter, representative from the Carmel Youth Center, with a check for $1500.00 at the general meeting of MPVS Thrift Shop, 785 Broadway in Seaside, which had been pledged to the Carmel Youth Center for the last half of July. The delegation from the Youth Center to the MPVS meeting, which consisted of Mrs. Tobiason, assistant manager, and three members, Nancy Baxter, Susan Baldwin, and Toshia Seeders, was happy to find that their efforts in collecting merchandise and otherwise helping in the sales had been so well rewarded.

The Junior Volunteers of the USO and Miss Barbara Britten, their leader, were gratified with the check for $1352.11 which Miss Clara Weston on behalf of the Thrift Shop handed to Mr. Frank Adams, manager for the USO in Monterey. This sum was the result of net profits from the Thrift Shop for the month of June which had been pledged to the USO.

A further gift of $250.00, proposed by Mrs. Arthur Dresser, chairman of the finance committee, was approved at this meeting for the Activities for the Handicapped of the Monterey Peninsula.

Plans for the MPVS Flea Market were considered. This is scheduled to take place on Wednesday, Oct. 9, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Monterey County Fairgrounds. The net proceeds of this will go to the Family Service Agency.

Under the Oaks and Among the Cactus

BY MILDRED HATTAN

Col. and Mrs. Dallas Pack decided to have a barbecue last week at the Trail and Saddle Club grounds to express their appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Woods and their daughter of Salinas for their invaluable assistance as consultants for the September 1 Eighth Annual Open Horse Show. A number of friends decided to join the festivities, and (not counting dogs, horses, and children!) 25 persons gathered for the "no-host" picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Conley entertained recently with a swimming party at Robles Del Rio Lodge honoring their son, Verne, Jr. ("Beanie") on his ninth birthday. The table was centered with one of Kathleen Wood's famous floral arrangements. This one, for "boy-type appeal" was a gay red, white, and blue. Beanie's guests included Winnie Sinclair, Robbie Woods, Craig Sinclair, Ronnie Bennett, Camille Conley, and Mrs. Paul Ceder who assisted with the party.

George Zelk, who made his home with Mr. and Mrs. John Brown on River Road for three years while attending school in the Valley, has moved to Costa Rica County.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Viljoen and children of Rancho Road are home from a camping trip at Tuolumne Meadows in Yosemite followed by eight days at Fallen Leaf Lake, where they visited with friends.

Mrs. Joanne Sears of Upper Circle entertained with a dinner party last week where farewells were said to her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merlino. The Merlinos are returning to Phoenix, Arizona, to complete their studies.

Thirty-nine children of members of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department attended the annual family barbecue held Sunday at the Trail & Saddle Club grounds. The picnic supper was preceded by the annual softball game pitting Company I against Company II. The antics on the field can best be compared to those on the basketball courts by the Harlem Globetrotters, and the zany attire defies description! Winner of Saturday's thriller depends upon which version you happen to hear, and the feud will undoubtedly be continued at next year's athletic event!

Adrian Smeltzer, chief deputy district attorney of Monterey County, is resigning his position effective September 13. A member of the district attorney's staff since graduating from Santa Clara University Law School in 1959, Smeltzer has been District Attorney Bertram N. Young's chief deputy since February 1963.

Luncheon guests Saturday at the Robles del Rio Lodge felt privileged indeed when they were treated to a fashion show from Joanne's Fine Sportswear. Star model of the afternoon was Mrs. William (Kathleen) Wood, who combined a coat and two dresses that Joanne had designed and made especially for her. Other models showed patio dresses and the first fall arrivals including suits, jumpers and skirts. Models were: Jean Ager, Dorothy Holley, Barbara Ascarate, and Ann Egli. Shows have been planned each Saturday during the summer months for luncheon guests at the various Valley resorts.

Pat and Clark Swan just came home from what they described as "an excellent furniture market" in San Francisco. They noted that one of the biggest changes is in carpeting fabrics, and voiced enthusiasm for the "refreshing change in upholstery" stressing patterns of strong colors used as accent pieces. Prior to their buying trip the Swans had gone to Clark's home town in Iowa. Accompanied by their daughters, Nina and Lori, they returned home via the Black Hills, the Badlands, Yellowstone, and the Tetons.

MAKING SPEECHES ABOUT OUR ANIMALS

Our members have been making speeches to arouse interest in our animals which will be auctioned at the County Fair. Usually, each year, some of the clubs such as Kiwanis and Lions chip in to bid on our animals. And each year Jack Currier who lives in Carmel Valley and owns Rocky Point Restaurant has bought either a beef or a lamb at the auction, for his restaurant.

Janet Powers and myself presented speeches for the Carmel Lions. We had dinner at Tom's Cafe in Carmel. Martha Crow and Bill Muscutt gave speeches to the Pacific Grove Lions. They had dinner at Slats in Monterey. Then Bill and myself gave speeches for the 20-30 Club of Monterey--dinner at Villa Caruso.

You can see we have been pretty busy. These speeches will continue to be given until the Monterey County Fair. If you belong to a club that would like to know more about what 4-H is doing, you could call and ask for a speaker, too.

NEW MEMBERS

Our invitations in this paper to boys and girls who would like to join our club resulted in 2 telephone calls last week--one from a boy, one from a girl. We are glad to have new members and you can still join. Just call MA 4-3519.

OUR LEADERS

In the next few articles, I will try to give you a thumbnail sketch of our community and project leaders. This week I have chosen our community leaders, Mr. and Mrs. William Muscutt.

When Mr. Muscutt was younger, he belonged to a 4-H club in East Monterey. His brother belonged, also. The East Monterey Club was then small, with only 10 members. Mr. Muscutt chose chickens, rabbits, and a garden as his projects. He says that in those days there were no fairs, so you could not enter your projects. He thinks 4-H has improved greatly since he was a boy.

Mr. Muscutt became a leader 6 years ago and has been community leader for 4 1/2 years. He is also livestock leader.

DAWN POWERS

Mrs. Muscutt has been a project leader for 5 years, in cooking, sewing, bugs, and home furnishing. She was not in 4-H when younger, but became interested when her son began 4-H. She believes that 4-H helps build mature and poised ladies and gentlemen. She believes it is essential now because of the needs of growing America.

Annual Swim Meet At Country Club

Another of the Valley's eagerly dwaited annual events will take place this Saturday, Aug. 10. It's the Swim Meet and Penny Dive at Rancho Del Monte Country Club for members and guests.

Last year about 100 youngsters scrambled through the water for more than $60.00 in pennies--the latter are saved for the occasion all through the year from bar receipts, it seems!

Youngsters aged 4 to 16 will participate in the swim meet, organized by RDMCC lifeguard Holly Spangenberg of Pebble Beach. Diving competition, relay races, and a score of other events are planned.

Added attractions will be a diving exhibition by Norman Boudreau, diving instructor for the City of Monterey's summer recreation program, and a canoe exhibition by Dr. Tor Meeland, assisted by young Bill Bradley.

Events begin at 2:00 p.m. and will continue most of the afternoon.

GEM & MINERAL MEETS FRIDAY

The Carmel Valley Gem and Mineral Society meets Friday, August 10, in the multipurpose room at Tularcitos School. Social gathering begins at 7:30, program at 8:00 p.m. Included will be a discourse and display by Dr. Maus Purple on "Archeology and Rare Minerals"; a demonstration of lapidary drilling by Pearl Pierson with talk by Lyle Winkler; birthstone presentation (sardonyx and peridot) by Don Laird; the motion picture presentation by Kit Parker of "The Story of Lead."

FIELD TRIP

The society's monthly field trip will be held this coming Saturday and Sunday. "Trippers" will meet at Lucia Lodge at 9:00 a.m. either Saturday or Sunday, depending on whether a one- or two-day outing is desired. Both camping facilities and motels are available nearby. Flower jasper in deep red, jasper with pyrite, milk quartz with red jasper, pink and yellow rhodonite, nephrite jade, mutton fat jade, and dark green serpentine are among the minerals to be foundi in the area. The latter is said to cut and polish nicely, and be "good for practice."

INCORPORATION QUESTION ON CHAMBER AGENDA

The board of directors of the Carmel Valley Chamber of Commerce will meet next Wednesday, August 14, for lunch at Reuben's at 12:15. On the agenda is consideration of the incorporation problem, reactivated by a recent letter to the Chamber from member Al Fry. Whether or not some type of survey should be conducted was considered but not decided upon at a special executive meeting earlier this week.

Mid-Valley POA To Meet Wednesday

The question of the gas station which Monterey Peninsula Associates is proposing for the northwest corner of Carmel Valley Rd. and Carmel Knolls Dr. will be on the agenda of the Mid-Carmel Valley Property Owners Association at its regular monthly meeting next Wednesday evening, August 14, at 7:30 p.m. at Carmelo School.

Newly-elected president Lawrence Horan, an attorney, will be presiding over the group for the first time. Any property owner from the Farm Center vicinity to the Valley entrance is eligible to join the group.

The meetings are public.

Change in Time For Drill Team

Meeting time for the drill team of Carmel Valley Trail and Saddle Club has been changed from Saturday mornings to Friday evenings, starting this week (Friday, August 9), announces instructor Allene Buckenroth.

Mrs. Buckenroth requests that the young people who belong to the team should bring sandwiches or a box supper of some sort to the Trail and Saddle grounds at 5:00. "Plan to start home about 7:00, but we won't be riding all that time," she explained. "Part of the time we'll sit around and talk and eat our suppers."

Families are invited to come along if they wish. The new meeting time will probably remain in effect (pending further announcement) until after the Trail & Saddle Club's big annual show, scheduled for Labor Day weekend.
